Notice

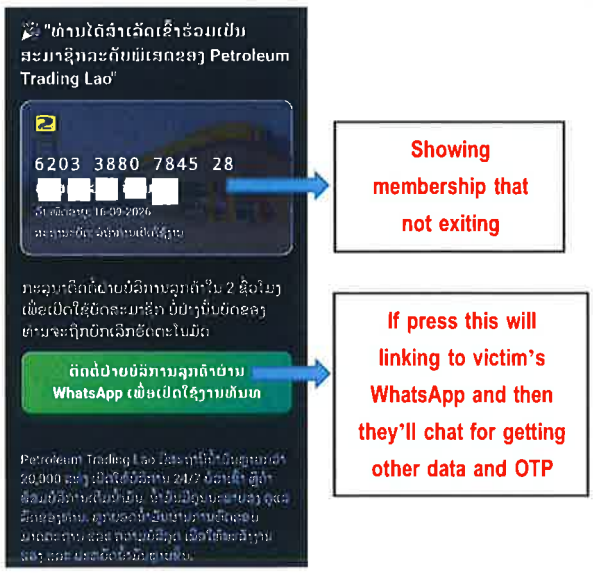

Petroleum Trading Lao Public Company Limited ("the Company") would like to inform all users of the Plus gas station service and those who receive information from the company's online channel via Facebook Page that: A group of unscrupulous people/call center have now created a fake Facebook Page by using the company's logo and advertising that they will receive discounts or coupons for refilling gas at Plus gas stations. This fraud has the following main objectives:

The steps in which the Call Center agents carry out the data collection fraud:

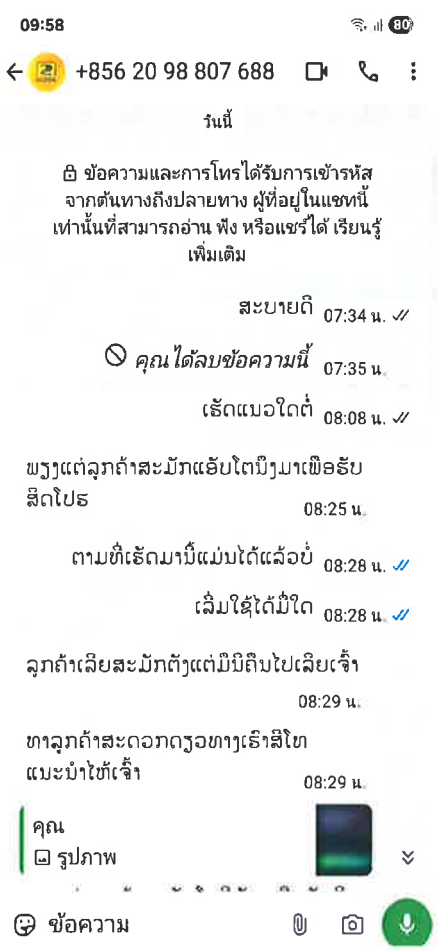

- Send a link to the victim to enter important information in the link that collects the victim's data such as: name and surname, address, phone number and WhatsApp number.
- After that they will send the victim a link where the victim have to input OTP (One-Time-Password) code number that sent via SMS by the mobile service provider into their link.
- If the victim is careless by provide the OTP number to the fishing link, the scammer now can fully to take control of the victim's mobile phone, including being able to access banking and other important applications on victim mobile phone and then hack to transfer money from victim's account.

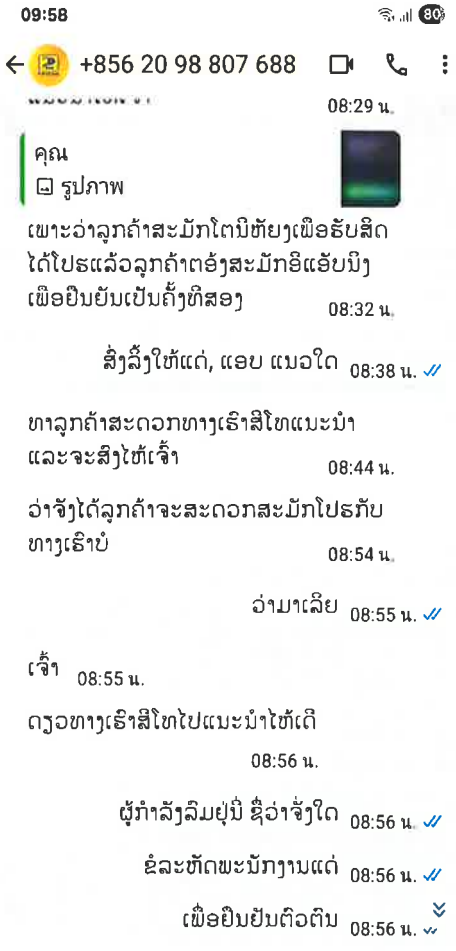

For example:

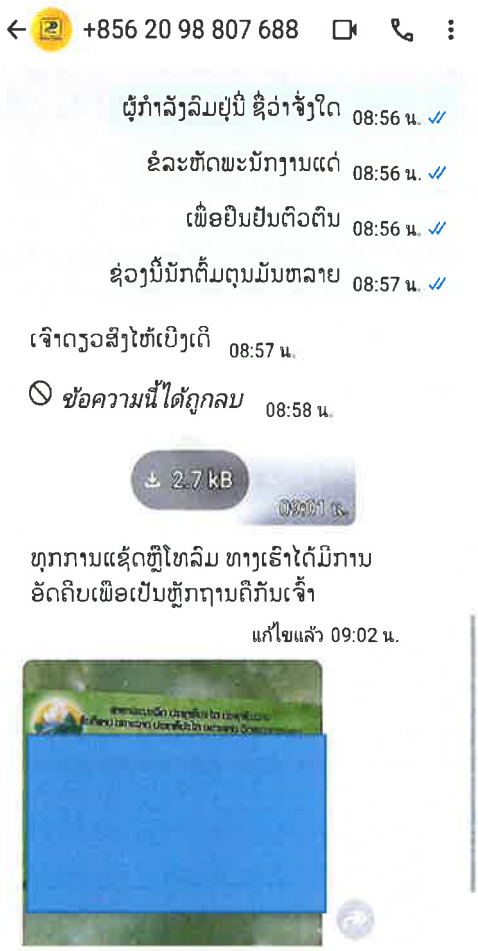

Below is the conversation from scammer with the victim trying to get OTP:

Advises to Prevention:

- Follow only information from the facebook official fan page of company that we're working with Meta to get our Page certified with a blue tick at the end of the name, and is expected to be completed soon.

- Never share your OTP code to anyone! Because when the scammer gets this OTP code, he can access the victim's mobile phone and change the passwords of various apps on the victim's mobile phone.

- Promotions and information can be followed through the following channels:
1. Official Facebook Fan Page: https://www.facebook.com/Petrotradelaos
2. Website: www.petrotradelaos.com
3. Disclosure Web of Lao Security Exchange: https://shorturl.at/znrdC
4. Petrotrade Head Office Call (office hours): 021-264834

Once again, the company would like to remind you that the company will not request or have a policy to collect personal information from our users in any form except as a customer who has registered to apply for a Plus Card. We request that users not be misled by providing such personal information to the scammer/call center. In any case, the company will not be responsible for any event caused by the negligence of customers who have provided personal information to such scammer.

Thank you to our customers and business partners for always supporting local business like us at Plus Gas Station.

Sincerely Yours,

Vice Chairman, Board of Director

Mr. Khamsone SITTHIXAY
