10 Income tax expenses

In accordance with Lao tax laws, the Company has an obligation to pay income tax in the form of Tax on Profit at the rate of 20% on taxable profit. Furthermore, as the Company is listed entity in Lao Securities Exchange the Company subject to have incentive 5% deduction from the normal profit tax rate for 4 years commencing from the listing period according to tax Law of Lao PDR. This rate is valid until the year ended 31 December 2021 and the rate 20% is applicable from 1 January 2022 onward

The taxation system in the Lao PDR is relatively new and is characterized by numerous taxes and frequently changing legislation, which is often unclear, contradictory, and subject to interpretation. Often, differing interpretations exist among the numerous taxation authorities and jurisdictions. Taxes are subject to review and investigation by a number of authorities, who are enabled by law to impose severe fines, penalties and interest charges.

These facts may create tax risks in Lao PDR that are substantially more significant than those in other countries. Management believes that it has adequately provided for tax liabilities based on its interpretation of the tax legislation. However, the relevant authorities may have differing interpretations and the effects of such discrepancies could be significant

11 Related party transactions

Enterprises and individuals that directly, or indirectly though one or more intermediaries, control, or are controlled by, or are under common control with, the Group, including holding companies, subsidiaries and fellow subsidiaries are related parties of the Group. Associates and individuals owning, directly or indirectly, an interest in the voting power of the Group that gives them significant influence over the enterprise, key management personnel, including directors and officers of the Group and close members of the family of these individuals and companies associated with these individuals also constitute related parties.

In considering each possible related party relationship, attention is directed to the substance of the relationship, and not merely the legal form.

12 Events after the reporting date

There have been no significant post balance sheet events that would significantly impact the figures in the Group's interim Consolidated financial information.
